For Immediate Release: TDECU Gives Back to Local Boys & Girls Clubs

(Houston, TX) — Recently, TDECU employees rolled up their sleeves and pitched in through personal volunteerism to help the local Boys & Girls Clubs in Stafford and Houston. As a part of TDECU’s company-wide Discover Day of Service, over 250 employees volunteered at the Boys & Girls Clubs by working on various projects including furniture assembly, painting, donation sorting and overall building and office maintenance.

In total, more than 750 TDECU employees volunteered their time at Boys & Girls Clubs throughout the Gulf Coast, Greater Houston, Victoria and Dallas/Forth Worth regions as part of TDECU’s Discover Day of Service.

When asked about TDECU’s partnership with the Boys & Girls Club, Lucilla Henderson, TDECU’s Vice President of Community Relations, stated, “When it comes to community involvement, not only do we focus on giving back, but giving forward to build the future of our communities. In selecting our Day of Service partner, we looked for one that was active in all of our markets, had a huge impact on our communities, and that was aligned to our community platform supporting Education, Health, and Economic Development initiatives.”
