For Immediate Release – TDECU Celebrates Grand Opening of Technology-Focused Member Center in Texas City

(Texas City, TX) — On October 27, TDECU celebrated the Grand Opening of their newest Member Center in Texas City – the 36th location for the $3 billion credit union. The 2,385 square foot facility places a heavy focus on technology, with on-site Member Learning and Discovery Centers as well as self-service kiosks. The location also features conveniences including a drive-thru and walk-up and drive-up ATMs.

“It’s the first of its kind for TDECU and Texas City,” stated Member Center Manager Tonia Neal, “and we are so excited to help our Members and the local Community experience everything this new location has to offer.”

The new Member Center is located at 6151 Gulf Freeway (IH-45), Texas City, TX 77591 and is open Monday through Friday, 9:00AM to 6:00PM, and Saturday 9:00AM to 1:00PM.
