Casey Wilcox, SVP, President of Holdings, TDECU

For Immediate Release: Casey Wilcox Joins TDECU Leadership Team as SVP, President of Holdings

(Lake Jackson, TX) — TDECU is pleased to welcome Casey Wilcox to its senior leadership team in the role of SVP, President of Holdings. In this position, Casey reports directly to TDECU President and CEO, Stephanie Sherrodd, and is responsible for the overall operation of the credit union’s holdings companies including, TDECU Wealth Advisors and TDECU Insurance Agency, LLC.

Casey brings to TDECU a solid track record of financial leadership spanning over two decades. He founded and managed HapLee Investments, which helped clients create internal strategies for faster and real-time payments and introduced Agile and cloud-based technologies into FinTech roadmaps. Previous experience includes his time as President of the Americas – Financial Institutions with EarthPort PLC, SVP – Head of Payments & International Product Team for Capital One, and SVP – Sales & Product/Business Development for FundTech Corporation, among other roles.

“Casey is a tremendous addition to our team,” said Stephanie Sherrodd, President and CEO of TDECU. “With Casey’s depth of experience in digital financial services and financial product design and development, we’re confident he will be able to help us keep our momentum going as we aim to deliver a superior member experience at TDECU. Casey is a compelling thought leader, and we are very excited to have him join the TDECU family.”
