FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: TDECU Names Isaac Johnson President and CEO

(Lake Jackson, TX) — “On behalf of the Board of Directors, we are pleased to announce the selection of Isaac Johnson as President and CEO. Isaac has a proven and respected history as a leader with TDECU, in the banking industry, and in serving our nation. After a diligent search, we couldn’t be more pleased with the outcome,” notes Board Chairman, Dick Smith. “To say I am excited about TDECU’s future doesn’t quite cover it. In Isaac we have a leader who is not only thoughtful, but is relentless in his commitment to our organization, to the impact we make in our communities, and to the financial journeys we help guide. We are in great hands.”

Johnson stepped into the role as Interim CEO in April of this year. His tenured history with TDECU includes his most recent position as SVP, Chief Administrative, Legal and Diversity Officer for the more than $4B organization. In addition to a demonstrated history of banking leadership at organizations including TDECU, USAA, Wells Fargo, and Trustmark National Bank, Isaac proudly serves as a Brigadier General commanding the 351st Civil Affairs Command, United States Army Reserve.

“I am honored to lead this exceptional credit union. I have an amazing team of leaders by my side, and we will work together with confidence, clarity, and purpose. I am also energized by TDECU’s commitment to providing the best Member Experience whenever and wherever we help people navigate their financial journey,” says Johnson.

Originally hailing from Gulfport, Mississippi, Johnson received his BBA from Mississippi State University and his MBA from Jackson State University. He went on to earn his JD from Thurgood Marshall School of Law, and completed additional programs through institutions including Cornell University and The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, as well as a Master of Strategic Studies at U.S. Army War College. Johnson and his family attend Wheeler Avenue Baptist Church in Houston.
