There are also private offices for Members who would like to have more in-depth conversations about their personal financial journeys or discuss many of TDECU's other benefits.

"From our humble beginnings back in Lake Jackson in 1955, to becoming the largest credit union in the greater Houston area 67-years later, TDECU has experienced a huge amount of growth," said Smith. "Now Members who live in The Woodlands have a new place to meet with our team and help us to grow even more."

With the opening of this newest location, Houston's largest credit union now has 34 Member Centers along with digital banking options of serve it's more than 366,000 Members.
