TDECU has reached a $28 million dollar financing deal with the Sweeny Community Hospital District for the construction of a new hospital. A formal groundbreaking ceremony will be held on Aug.31, 2022, to mark the beginning of construction of the new state of the art facility.

The $45 million dollar project is expected to be completed in early 2024.

“The hospital district reached out to us for support in capital fundraising and the more we looked at it the more we fell in love with the project,” said Josh Brian, Market President of TDECU. “We love what it will do for Sweeny, and the value it will bring to the community.”

“The Sweeny Community Hospital District is very excited to partner with TDECU as we continue to move forward in the construction of the new hospital building that will serve the community’s healthcare needs for many, many more years,” Sweeny Hospital District Board President Mason Nichols said. “I am grateful for our amazing team at SCH for working so hard at bringing the project vision closer to reality.”

TDECU, Houston's largest credit union, originated in Lake Jackson in 1955, and is dedicated to improving the lives of those who live in the rapidly growing Brazoria County.

"We want to be a part of projects like these. If there is something going on and we can provide terms that are better, that make more sense, than a large bank then we want to be the community bank that supports that activity," said Brian.
