TDECU, Houston's largest credit union, continues to build its leadership team with the addition of Michael Massey as SVP, Chief Audit Officer.

In his new role, Massey will be responsible for developing, implementing, and maintaining a robust audit strategy that is aligned with TDECU's goals and objectives. He will build strong relationships with business partners, enterprise leaders, and the Board of Directors to align our business strategy with appropriate risk management practices and controls. He will also be responsible for developing and managing a team of internal auditors, conducting and overseeing audits, as well as managing engagements with external firms.

"We could not be more excited to welcome Michael Massey to TDECU. We are committed to providing the best service to our Members which includes making sure we are operating at our best. He will be a key part in offering our Members the assurance they deserve," says Isaac Johnson, President and CEO of TDECU. "Michael's previous experience, and diverse credentials, show an ability to leverage business intelligence, innovation, and team collaboration, making him ideal for our leadership team."

"I have built and managed high-performing teams who delivered impactful results aligned with the strategic objectives and initiatives of the organization," said Massey. "I look forward to bringing that experience to help TDECU's Members on their personal financial journeys."

Massey most recently served as SVP of Digital and Growth at Georgia's Own Credit Union. He began his financial services career as a Commercial Banker through the BB&T Management Development program. After several years as Vice President of Commercial Banking, Massey became a Certified Public Accountant (North Carolina #34218) and worked in Public Accounting (Audit) and then eventually as an Internal Auditor with a software company.

Massey has served on various boards and committees throughout his professional career. In 2018, The Honorable Roy Cooper, Governor of North Carolina, appointed Massey to serve on the North Carolina State Board of CPA Examiners. While on the Board, he served in various leadership roles including President when he launched the Strategic Planning Committee.

Massey holds an active Certified Public Accountant license, an MBA from The Kenan-Flagler Business School at UNC Chapel Hill, and a BS in Chemical Engineering from North Carolina State University.
