TDECU Launches Loan Program for Furloughed Federal Employees

TDECU, Houston's largest credit union, has launched a Furlough Relief Loan program to support its Members who have been furloughed due to the current government shutdown.

"TDECU was founded on the idea of people helping people and, during times of uncertainty, it is our mission to stand by our Members and provide the support they need," said TDECU Chief Growth Officer Josh Brian. "The Furlough Relief Loan is one way that we are living out that commitment."

The Furlough Relief Loan offers loans up to $5,000 for 12- or 24-month terms, and Members have 90 days to make their first payment. Additional details can be found at TDECU.org/government-shutdown.

TDECU offers several other programs to assist Members, such as Skip-A-Pay and credit cards with no annual fees and zero-percent balance transfers. Additionally, TDECU Wealth Advisors are available to help members plan for long-term financial stability and debt management.
