TDECU celebrated the grand opening of its new Member Center located at 119 State Highway 35 South in Port Lavaca with a ribbon-cutting ceremony attended by community members, local partners, and area businesses.

The 2,533 square foot facility introduces an enhanced banking experience for members, featuring two drive-thru lanes, drive-up and walk-up ATMs, expanded office spaces, a welcoming lobby, and a convenient coin machine.

“When we opened our original branch in Port Lavaca in 2009, space was limited, but our commitment to the community was not,” said TDECU Crossroads Market President Marina Rivera. “We promised to reinvest and grow along with Port Lavaca, and today’s celebration is the fulfillment of that promise.”

The celebration was attended by Mayor Jack Whitlow, City Manager Jody Weaver, and Calhoun County Judge Vern Lyssy, along with representatives from the Port Lavaca Chamber of Commerce. KLUB Tejano FM provided a live broadcast from the event, which also welcomed participation from local businesses, including Flats Cats and D&B Boat Dealers. Guests were treated to a spirited performance by the Travis Middle School Cheer Team, along with refreshments and complimentary giveaways.
