TDECUCU, Houston's largest credit union, has partnered with renowned local artist Donkeeboy to create a vibrant mural celebrating Houston's role as a host city for the world's premier soccer event. The mural was unveiled on Tuesday, June 2, at TDECUCU's Space City Credit Union Member Center on Harrisburg Boulevard.

“This mural reflects the pride, diversity, and spirit of the people who live, work, and build their lives here,” said TDECUCU Market President Glenn Applewhite III. “It honors our story while looking ahead to an exciting future for our city. This mural is a reminder of what can happen when organizations and neighbors come together to invest in something meaningful.”

The new mural features several hands holding aloft a soccer scarf in front of a soccer ball, with Houston's iconic skyline in the background and a space shuttle lifting off into the starry sky.

Frances Dyess, President of the Houston East End Chamber of Commerce says the mural celebrate everything that makes Houston great.

"From the first moment I saw it, I thought it was beautiful," Dyess said. "It celebrates culture, community, color, and unity... and the fact that it was painted by Donkeeboy, a local artist with many other murals in the East End, it makes it even more special for us."

TDECU President and CEO Isaac Johnson and Board Chair Lavonne Burke cut the ribbon celebrating the new soccer-themed mural.

The mural is prominently located in front of TDECU's Space City Credit Union Member Center, in the 3100 block of Harrisburg Boulevard, adjacent to the popular light rail line, where it will be seen by thousands of commuters and visitors who are visiting Houston for the international soccer tournament.
